

"A Penguin Visits The Town!"

In this story,  is "town",  is "fountain", is "shop",  is "Queenie", and  is a bench.

Once a penguin named  lived in a cold country. She had the desire to visit the . But her parents didn't allow her to go. So one night  ran away from her home without the permission of her parents. She traveled many miles and reached the .  couldn't see anything because it was dark. She felt sleepy and slept on the sidewalk. The next day she woke up and saw many people and . Lot of vehicles were hurrying on the highway.

 suddenly became hungry. So  went in search of a fish .

She came to a  and sat there. Water was pouring from the  and she drank water. Nobody took care of her. Everyone was busy in the . Men were going to offices and kids were going to schools.

 Looked at everything in the

and thought how different this is from my home. Then and hurried towards it. She had to cross the main road. But she just walked on the crossing without seeing the vehicles. A car was coming at high speed toward her. But when it came near her the driver put a sudden break. She just escaped from the accident. Became frightened about the after this incident. She returned back to her home quickly. Every penguin was happy to see her again!

Vocabularies:

Fountain- A jet or stream of water made by man

Penguin- short-legged flightless birds of cold southern hemisphere.

Town- a place where many people live

Permission- giving permit, approval, or OK

Travel- journey or trip

Sidewalk- a place where people move or walk

Vehicles- cars, buses, airplane, etc.

Highway- a road

Questions:

Where does the penguin live?

What is the name of the penguin?

Where is she going?

Why is her home different from the town?