

An Investigation

- A. What can you remember about the attack, Mr. Shaw?
B. Well, I was working late last night.
A. What time did you leave last night?
B. At about a quarter after nine.
A. Are you sure?
B. Yes, I am. I looked at my watch.
A. What did you do then?
B. Well, I locked the office door, and I was walking to the parking lot when somebody hit me on the head.
A. Did you see the attacker?
B. No. He was wearing a mask over his face.
A. He? Oh, so it was a man!

Vocabularies:

Attack – to make an attack; launch an assault

Quarter after nine – 9:15

Parking lot – a piece of land with few or no buildings

Mask - a covering worn on the face to conceal one's identity

Expressions:

What can you remember?

I was working late.

What time did you leave?

I left at _____.

Did you see the attacker?

Yes/No. I did/didn't see him/her.

Practice:

- A. What _____ you remember about the attack, Mr. Shaw?
B. Well, I was working late last night.

A. What time did you _____ last night?
B. I _____ at about a quarter after nine.