

At the program.

It was a Parent's day. The Bristol College University was going to have a program. All parents were invited to the program.

Mrs. Jones: We are going to see a program this afternoon. You should know how to behave well at the program.

Harry: We should keep quiet.

Eddy: We should listen.

Kate: We should not move from one seat to another

Alice: We may clap our hands softly after a number.

David: We should not laugh at mistakes made.

Jasmine: We should stay until the program is over

Mrs. Jones: Let's see if you can remember all of these when we are at the program.

QUESTION

1. What was the school celebrating?
2. Who were invited to the program?
3. What should you do when someone is talking?

WORDS:

Program: A listing of the order of events and other pertinent information for a public presentation.

Quiet: Making little or no noise

Mistakes: A misconception or misunderstanding.

Listen: To make an effort to hear something, to pay attention