

The International Language

Dialogue:

Simone: You know... I think English is an easy language to learn. Don't you agree?

Simon: Well, I'm not so sure. Why do you say that?

Simone: The grammar rules are very easy. Don't you think so?

Simon: No, not really. I disagree. In my opinion, English is a very difficult language.

Simone: Oh! What makes you say that?

Simon: You don't always pronounce English words the way you spell them.

Simone: Hamm. Maybe you're right.

Let's Do It:

1. What is English for you?
2. Do you think it's really important to learn the English language? Why?
3. How do you find English? Is it difficult or easy?
4. What are the benefits that you can get when you know the English language?
5. Do you know the origin of the English language?
6. Do you love English films or music? Why?
