
Excuse Me?

Jack stops a man on the street and asks him for directions to the Destiny Restaurant.

Jack: Excuse me. I am looking for the Destiny Restaurant. Do you know how to get there?

Man on the Street: Destiny . . . Destiny. . . Yeah, it's down 3rd avenue, around the corner on the left, next to . . . let me see . . . Yeah, its right next to a big tall building with a . . . two big trees in front.

Jack: So it's just down 3rd avenue. What street do I turn on?

Man on the Street: Seocho. Yeah, just around the corner on Seocho on the left.

Jack: Great! Got it. Thanks a lot!

Man on the Street: Not a problem!

Vocabulary

Directions - an instruction or series of instructions for doing or finding something

Expressions

Excuse me.

Do you know how to get there?

Not a problem.

Practice

- A. _____ me. I am looking for Destiny Restaurant. Do you know how to get there?
- B. It's down 3rd avenue around the _____ on the left.