

I'm kind of broke.

Cameron asks John whether he wants to eat out or not. John hesitates a little bit. He tells her that he's kind of broke.

Cameron: Hey, let's eat out tonight.

John: What's the occasion? You won the lottery?

Cameron: No, just want to relax a little bit. You don't have to win the lottery to relax, do you?

John: Well, I'm kind of broke.

Cameron: Really?

John: It's very nice of you.

Cameron: Don't be silly. I'll take you anywhere you want to go.

John: Wonderful! You know what? I wish I can do the same thing you do.

Cameron: Dream on!

Vocabularies:

Tonight- On or during the present or coming night.

Wonderful- It was joyous and grave at the same time

Relax- To relieve or become relieved from tension or strain.

Practice

A: Hey, let's eat out_____.

B: No, just want to _____ a little bit. You don't have to _____ the lottery to relax, do you?

A: Wonderful! You know _____? I wish you wanted to relax everyday.

B: _____ on!