

Immeasurable Wealth

Dialogue:

Cathy: Are you aware that we have a recitation for today?
Cynthia: I'm sorry but I don't know. I was absent yesterday.
Cathy: Oh, I see! Let me ask you something... What do you consider wealth?
Cynthia: Well, wealth doesn't mean money at all. For me, it's something which can't be stolen from you?
Cathy: And what is that?
Cynthia: I believe it's education.
Cathy: You're right. Education is one of the most important things in our life.
Cynthia: It's an immeasurable wealth.
Cathy: You got it correctly.

Expressions:

- What do you consider wealth?
- It's something which can't be stolen from you.
- I believe...

Practice:

A: What is _____ for you?
B: _____ is _____ which can't be _____ from you.
A: I believe it's _____.
B: You're right. _____ is one of the most _____ things in _____.
A: It's a _____.
B: You _____ it exactly.
-