

Important things in Life

Dialogue

Matthew: What do you think are the most important things in life?

Francine: I would say, God and love are the most important, and then family comes next.

Matthew: I'd say, my health comes first, followed by work and friendship.

Francine: Ah! Ok.

Matthew: Guess, what Vincent had just said to me?

Francine: hmmm, no idea, tell me what...

Matthew: He said, money and power are the most important for him.

Francine: Really?

Matthew: Yes, and before hand I already figure it out.

Francine: Why did you say so?

Matthew: Have you forgotten the personality of Vincent? He is very authoritative.

Francine: Yap, right! No wonder why he chose money and power. I remember when we are still young; he used to tell us that he wants to be a great politician.

Matthew: Yap, right. I'm aware of that.

Expressions:

- What are the most important things in life?
- Before hand, I already figure it out.
- Why did you say so?
- He used to tell.

Practices/ Questions:

1. What are the three most important things in your life? Explain your answers.
2. Can you give an example of thing or person you can't live without? Why?
3. Choose and explain:
 - a. "man lives to eat"
 - b. "man eats to live"