

Is There a Drug Store Nearby?

- A. Excuse me. Is there a drug store nearby?
B. Yes. There's a drug store on River Street.
A. On River street?
B. Yes. It's on River Street, between the library and the clinic.
C.
A. Thanks very much.

Vocabularies:

drug store – a store where we can buy drugs or medicines

library – a place where we can read and borrow books

clinic – a small place where we can get the first treatment for some illnesses

Expressions:

Is there a drugstore nearby?

- Yes. It is on River Street.

Where is the park?

- It is right down the street.

Is there a bank here?

- Yes, it is next to the post office.

Practice:

- A. _____ me. Is there a supermarket _____?
B. _____. There's a _____ on Davis Boulevard.
A. On _____?
B. Yes. It's Davis Boulevard , around the corner from the movie theater.
A. _____ very much.

Exercise:

1. Where is the nearest hospital in your hometown?
2. How can you go to the nearest hospital from your house?
3. Do you give directions to strangers? How?

