

LOVE VS. PRIDE (advance 2)

If your sweetheart told you that your dating relationship was over, would you give in gracefully or beg for a continuation? Doing the first would mean that you would never be lovers in the same way ever again, but at least you would have your dignity. Doing the second would mean that there was a chance of staying together, which is very important to you, but that you would completely lose your pride. Which would you choose?

VOCABULARY:

Dignity- The quality or state of being worthy of esteem or respect.

Pride- a feeling of self-respect and personal worth

Let's talk:

1. What is the selection all about?
2. What is pride?
3. Do you prefer pride over love or love over pride?
4. If you were in the situation which would you choose the first or second choice? Why?
5. What is your definition of love?