

Let's keep our fingers crossed and hope for the best!

Storyline: Dorothy looks very worried and Jacob is trying to comfort her....

Dialogue:

Jacob: You look so concerned, Dorothy. What's on your mind?

Dorothy: I'm worried about the interview tomorrow. It's so important to me. You know, I've been looking for a job for three months, and this is my first interview.

Jacob: Don't worry too much, Dorothy. Everything will work out just fine.

Dorothy: I hope so.

Jacob: Come on, Dorothy. Let's keep our fingers crossed and hope for the best.

Vocabularies

worried- to feel uneasy or concerned about something; be troubled interview -the questioning of a person important- strongly affecting the course of events or the nature of things

poise – a pleasant way of handling oneself

Expressions:

I hope so

Keep our finger crossed

What's on your mind?

Don't worry too much.

Practice:

Dorothy: I'm worried about the _____ tomorrow. It's so important to me. You know, I've been looking for a job for three months, and this is my first _____.

Jacob: Don't worry too _____, Dorothy. Everything will work out just fine.

Dorothy: I _____ so.

Explain: Give your answer in sentence.

1. Do you also get scared when you have an interview? What do you do to get rid of the fears?
2. How do you keep your poise when you are in an interview?
3. How do you prepare for an interview?