

May I take your order?

Dialogue

A: May I take your order?

B: I would like to have pasta.

A: What else do you like to order?

B: Yes, Can you please give me a mango juice?

A: Okay. Anything else?

B: No, thank you. That's all.

Vocabularies:

Order- a request of the customer for a food

Pasta- a food which made of dough, wheat and egg

Juice- a drink with flavor like apple, strawberry and grapes

Take- to get

Expressions:

May I take your order?

- Yes, I would like to have roast beef.

What else do you like to order?

- A juice please.

Anything else?

- No, thank you.

Practice: Take an order from a customer and then, make an order in a restaurant or fast food.

May I take your order?

_____.

pizza

pasta

T-bone steak

bulgogi

sushi

udong

japchae

roast beef

meat loaf

Exercise:

1. How can you get an order in a restaurant?
2. How can you get an order from the customer?
3. Who usually gets the order in the restaurant?