

My head is spinning now.

Storyline: John doesn't feel well because he is fairly tired from a party he had late into the midnight. Mary suggests that John should go home and take a rest.

Dialogue:

- Mary: You look tired. Didn't you get enough sleep last night?
- John: No. I had a bunch of my friends over and we partied until the wee hours.
- Mary: No wonder you look so bad!
- John: I guess I just can't take late nights like I used to. My head is spinning and I have a migraine.
- Mary: I think you need to go home and take a rest.
- John: I wish I could. But I don't think I can keep my eyes open long enough to drive home.
- Mary: Don't worry. I'll give you a ride home. But next time, watch the partying, OK?

Vocabularies

bunch- a group of like items or individuals gathered or placed together

spinning - to cause to rotate swiftly; twirl

migraine - that is characterized by sharp pain or A severe recurring headache

Expressions:

My head is spinning – dizzy

No wonder you look bad/awful!

I can't keep my eyes open long enough. – The person will fall asleep.

Practice:

Mary: You look tired. Didn't you get enough _____ last night?

John: No. I had a bunch of my friends over and we _____ until the wee hours.

Mary: No _____ you look so bad!

John: I guess I just can't take late nights like I used to. My head is _____ and I have a _____.

Explain: Give your answer in sentence.

1. Do you also go to party? How long do you stay in a party?
2. Does it affect your work? How does it affect your work?
3. What is your kind of a party?