

On Plans and Excuses

Ted and Sara plan to watch a movie together.

A: Let's go to a movie together.

B: I'd love to. When shall we go?

A: How about next Friday evening?

B: Let me see..... Oh, I am sorry, I'm having dinner with a friend.

A: How about the following Tuesday?

B: That'd be great. What shall we see?

A: Star Wars?

B: No, that's awful. How about Austin Powers?

A: Sounds good to me. When shall we meet?

B: Seven? In the Kent Tavern?

A: Great, see you there.

Vocabulary

Awful - extremely bad or unpleasant; terrible

Expressions

Let's go to a movie together.

I'd love to.

Let me see...

No, that's awful.

Sounds good to me.

Great, see you there.

Practice

A. _____ to a movie together.

B. I'd _____ to.

A. _____ shall we meet?

B. Seven? In the Kent Tavern?

A. Great, _____ there.