

On the moon

- A. Hello, Phil. Can you hear me?
- B. Yes, I can hear you clearly.
- A. What are you going to do next?
- B. I'm going to open the door.
- A. Hello, Phil. What are you doing now?
- B. I'm opening the door.
- A. Phil! Have you opened the door?
- B. Yes, I've opened it! I can see the moon, and it's fantastic!

Vocabularies:

Clearly – distinctly; spoke loud and clear

Moon – the natural satellite of Earth

Fantastic - unrestrainedly fanciful; extravagant

Expressions:

Can you hear me?

Ye/no, I can/can't hear you clearly.

What are/is you/she/he doing?

I'm opening the door.

I'm/she's/he's opening the door.

Practice:

- A. Hello, Phil. Can you _____ me?
- B. Yes, I can hear you _____.
- A. What are you _____ to do next?
- B. I'm going to _____ the door.

- A. What are you _____ now?
- B. I'm _____ the door.
- A. Phil! Have you opened the _____?
- B. Yes, I've opened it! I can see the _____, and it's _____!