

Please come in.

Dialogue 1

- A: Welcome to my house.
I'm glad you could come.
- B: Thank you for inviting me.
- A: Have a seat, please.
- B: Make yourself comfortable.

Dialogue 2

- A: Come in, please.
Won't you come into the parlor?
- B: Thank you.
- A: You're welcome.
It's my pleasure to have you.
- B: You have a very nice home.
- A: Shall I show you around my house?

Vocabularies:

Comfortable – free from stress or tension

Parlor – any of various business places

Pleasure – feeling of being pleased or gratified.

Expressions:

- Thank you for inviting us.
- Welcome to my house.
- Make yourself at home.
- You have a very nice home.
- Did you have any trouble finding our house?
- It's my pleasure to have you.
- Please leave your shoes here.
- May I take your coat?
- Won't you come into the parlor?
- Shall I show you around my house?

Practice:

A: Welcome to my _____.

I'm glad you could come.

B: Thank you for _____ me.

A: Have a seat, please.

B: Make yourself _____.

A: Come in, _____.

Won't you come into the _____?

B: Thank you.

A: You're welcome.

It's my _____ to have you.

B: You have a very nice _____.

A: Shall I show you around my house?

Exercise:

1. What do you say to someone who gives a visit?
2. What do you say to the person you give a visit?
3. What do you say if someone welcome you to his/her house?