

REACTING TO BAD NEWS

A: What are you doing?!

B: I'm sleeping on the floor.

A: That's strange! Do you usually sleep on the floor?

B: No. I never sleep on the floor, but I'm sleeping on the floor today.

A: Why are you doing that?

B: Because my bed is broken.

A: I'm sorry to hear that.

VOCABULARY:

Usually- Normally done, found or used.

Never- Not at all; in no way; absolutely not

PRACTICE:

Situation:

You need to study for an exam, your lamp is broken so you need to study using a flashlight, and someone saw you while doing that.

A: What are you doing?

B: I'm _____.

A: Why are you doing that?

B: Because my _____.

A: I'm sorry to _____.