

SOMETHING BETTER IS MEANT FOR YOU

Dialogue:

Faith: So, how was your interview?

Cathy: It was fine, although I felt nervous.

Faith: Really! But anyway don't worry, it would be fine. You have everything they need.

Cathy: Do you think so?

Faith: Yeah, but if you will not get the position don't feel bad maybe something better is meant for you.

Cathy: Ok, Thanks. I'll keep that in my mind.

EXPRESSIONS:

- How was your interview?
- It was fine.
- Do you think so?
- I'll keep that in my mind.

Vocabularies:

Nervous- easily excited or irritated

Position- an employment for which one has been hired; job

Fine – okay; all right

PRACTICE:

A: So, how _____ your interview?

B: It _____ fine, although I _____ nervous.

A: Really? But anyway don't worry, it _____ be fine.

B: Do you think so?

Explain: Give your answer in sentence and try to use some of the expressions that we have in this topic.

1. What is the usual feeling of yours when you have just finished an interview?
2. Do you think that having self-confidence and poise will help you get a job easier?
3. What do you always keep in mind when you have an interview?