

THE BLIND OLD BEGGAR

The blind old beggar is wearing a dirty blue shirt and black pants. He is walking bare footed on the street when he found blocks of wood as well as a dirty blanket. The old beggar picked them up but he failed to notice the blades scattered on the ground, so his feet were cut and blood flowed from his feet. The old beggar just stopped and sensed the other beggars passing by while clutching the blanket and blocks of wood he found.

NOTE:

Consonant Blend- is a team of two consonants. Bl is a consonant blend.
