

The case of the valuable scarf

In this story,  is "scarf",  is "jewelry box", is "world", and  is "Roman McDonalds".

In the house in the middle of a small town, next door to the  is where Cecil lives. In Cecil's room, in the top drawer, in the back, hidden under her gloves, was the most valuable  in the entire  Cecil came home from school to look at her  but when he looked into  it was gone. He cried and screamed and hollered.

He told his mom to look everywhere. "We got to search the

So his mom walked to the laundry room and pulled the  out of the drier.

He was so happy that he ran to his room and put his  in the  and was glad to see her  apparently her mom cleaned the

She was so happy she ran to th  and bought some fries.

Vocabularies:

Jewelry- bracelets, necklaces, or rings, made of precious metals set with gems or imitation gems.

Valuable- having great material or monetary value

Laundry- A room or an area, as in a house, for doing the wash.

Holler- yell or shout

Questions

What is the most valuable thing in the story?

Where did they find the scarf?

Why was the scarf missing?

What did she buy?