

WINNERS AND LOSERS (advance 3)

The winner- is always part of the answer

The Loser- always part of the problem

The Winner – always has a programmed

The Loser – always has an excuse

The Winner – says: "Let me do it for you."

The Loser – says: "That's not my job."

The Winner – sees an answer to every problem

The Loser – sees a problem in every answer

The Winner – says, "It may be difficult but it's possible."

The Loser – says, it may be possible but it's too difficult."

Let's talk:

1. Why do winners always part of the answer and loser's part of the problem?
2. What do losers usually do in difficult times?
3. How do you differentiate a winner and a loser in terms of responsibilities?
4. Why does the winner sees answer for every problem, and the loser sees problem to every answer?
5. What do we mean by an optimist and pessimist?
6. How do you classify yourself?
7. Explain the message of the poem.
