

Water Everywhere!

Kim Yong got home from work at 7:30 yesterday evening. He took the elevator to his sixth-floor apartment. He opened the door and saw water on his floor! First, he went to the kitchen. The sink in the kitchen wasn't leaking. Then he checked the bathroom. The toilet wasn't leaking. And the bathroom sink wasn't leaking. Finally, he went to the living room and looked up the ceiling. The light was leaking!

Kim Yong ran upstairs to the apartment above his on the seventh floor. He knocked on the door and rang the doorbell, but his neighbor, Mr. Park, wasn't home. Kim Yong went back to his apartment. He was worried. So he decided to call the superintendent of the building.

Mr. Sun, the superintendent, was very helpful. He went to Kim Yong's apartment right away, and then he and Kim Yong went upstairs to the seventh floor. Mr. Sun opened the door to Mr. Park's apartment, and they saw the problem immediately. Mr. Park's dishwasher was leaking! There was water everywhere! Mr. Sun turned off the dishwasher. Then he went downstairs and fixed the light in Kim Yong's living room. He even helped Kim Yong clean up the water on his floor.

Kim Yong really appreciated Mr. Sun's help, so he invited Mr. Sun to have a cup of coffee. They sat and talked all evening about life in the apartment building.

Questions

1. Why was Kim Yong surprised when he got home from work yesterday?
2. Why did he call the superintendent?
3. What was the problem?
4. What did Mr. Sun do when he discovered the problem?
5. How did Kim Yong and Mr. Sun celebrate their "victory"?
6. Tell about a time when you had an emergency at home.
7. What was the emergency?
8. Who did you call?

9. Did the person help you?

10. Was there any damage to your home?