

What can I do for you?

A: Hello, This is Mrs. Smith in room 7.

B: Yes! What can I do for you?

A: I'm calling to find out why you haven't gotten rid the cockroach in our room yet?

B: I'm sorry! Mrs. Smith I've been busy

A: You know I'm a little disappointed really! You should have gotten rid of them by now.

B: Okay! But these things take time.

A: Well, I hope you have to do it right away or else I call the health department.

B: Of course! I'll do it right away.

VOCABULARIES:

Cockroach: flat-bodied insects of the family Blattidae, including several species that are common household pests.

Disappointed: To fail to satisfy the hope, desire, or expectation of.

EXPRESSIONS:

- a. What can I do for you?
- b. Of course! I'll do it right away.
- c. OK! But these things take time

PRACTICE

What can do for _____?

Of course! I'll do it _____ away.