

What has been your most rewarding accomplishment?

The most rewarding accomplishment that I've had was when I finished my studies. Because, I was able to share the fruits of my triumphs with my family especially my parents. I compensated all their hard works and sacrifices in order for me to finish my studies.

The most rewarding accomplishment that I've had as a teacher is knowing that my students gained knowledge from me and they were able to utilize that knowledge to become better persons and achieve their goals.

The most rewarding accomplishment that I've had was when I got promoted as a Manager in my previous company. Because, after all the challenges that I've experience and all the hard works that I've exerted, the company noticed that I stood up among the rest so I consider it as the greatest accomplishment for me.
