

Why Did You Decide To Seek A Position In This Field?

Answer:

It is because I am looking for a green pasture. I believe if I get lucky and be part of your prestigious company I am going to grow more in terms of personal and professional aspects. And I have been a big fan of challenge and change. I always believed that challenge motivates the person to excel in his commitment. Being open to changes will improve and make me a better person. These two drive me to keep on exploring my other capabilities and skills. Therefore, this job would be a great opportunity to make me a fulfilled person. Your company is what I considered my green pasture
